LAST CHANCE TO REGISTER FOR THIS WEEK!

Join us this week for a fun, hands-on STEM workshop with faculty from NAU's Center for Science Teaching and Learning! STEM In Out-of-School Time: The Sky's the Limit will be:

- April 12 in Flagstaff
- April 13 in Tempe
- April 14 in Glendale

Learn all about Engineering is Elementary's FREE out-of-school time STEM curriculum, and how you can successfully integrate these fun, enriching STEM activities in your program. You'll get step-by-step instruction on "Sky's the Limit", a collection of exciting, low-cost activities for grades 3-5 focused on flying technologies, including:

- Building a Tower
- Making a Vertical Wind Tunnel
- How to Launch Flying Discs

You'll also learn about "Engineering Adventures" and "Engineering Everywhere", EIE's sets of out-of-school time activities and curriculum for grades 3-5 and 6-8, and best practices and strategies for providing fun, engaging and successful STEM activities in your program!
