AzCASE Professional Development Kick Off!

Today is the first day of PE in OST: Safe, Healthy, and Fun Group Management, but you still have a chance to join us for this fantastic training!

We're bringing this training with to:

MESA next Wednesday, February 8, 9:15-12:15 and TUCSON on Wednesday, April 5, 9:00-12:00!

Get ready to lead dynamic physical activity programming that reinforces positive behavior AND keeps all youth engaged and active! In this high-energy, interactive workshop, expert coach Jason Jamison will guide you through a variety of interactive games and sports that demonstrate how to manage large groups of youth effectively. You'll leave this workshop ready and excited to implement safe, fun, high-energy physical activities in your program!

Attend this three hour training for just $35!

Leaders & Managers--We Have Training for You, Too!

We are launching our Spring 2017 Leadership Series, professional development designed to help youth program leaders and managers strengthen their skills and programs!

Train Your Staff Like a Pro will debut with a full-day session on Tuesday, February 21, 9:00-3:00, at the Valley of the Sun United Way, lunch provided

Andrea Beaulieu, ASU Faculty Associate, with over 30 years of experience as a professional speaker and executive speech coach will give you the tools to create and organize impactful presentations, improve your public speaking skills and confidence, and capture your audience.

Attend this three hour training for just $45!

Take Your Youth to the Model Congress

Youth and Government is a model legislative program that allows middle and high school students the opportunity to learn the legislative and judicial processes through hands-on conferences and activities. On February 25th, Valley of the Sun YMCA will host their annual Model Congress event at Arizona Summit Law School. Youth grades 7-12 will have the opportunity to live the congressional process, solve the issues that face our country, and have fun!

NAA's Most Influential in Health & Wellness

NAA seeks to recognize individuals and organizations who are strong advocates and supporters of health & wellness in OST.

Nominate individuals and organizations whose service, action, and leadership are in alignment with and support of NAA Healthy Eating and Physical Activity (HEPA) Standards for Out-of-School Time and impact large numbers of young people, families, and/or OST professionals.

Those selected will be featured in the Spring issue of AfterSchool Today magazine, as well as online and on NAA's social media platforms. Nominations are open until February 3, 2017!
